

Personal Goals and Commitment

Enough Stewardship Campaign

During the past few weeks, we have examined some of the financial challenges facing us as a nation, and we have looked at our own spending, saving, and giving habits. We have examined the biblical principles of financial management, and we have learned how to live in a way that will allow us to experience the true joy that comes through simplicity and generosity. Now, I ask God's blessing of my commitment to these personal goals for the upcoming year.

My Personal Goals and Commitment for 2012

1. I will thank God daily for all my blessings. My goal for daily Bible reading and prayer is _____ days each week. My goal is to serve God and the church by _____ each week/month.
2. I will seek contentment and simplicity and live within my means. My spending goal is _____.
3. I will seek freedom from the bonds of credit and debt. My debt reduction goal is _____.
4. I will seek to wisely manage the gifts God has given me, investing and saving for the future. My saving goal is _____.
5. I will worship God each week by the giving of my tithes and offerings. My estimate of giving for 2012 is _____.

Lord,

I present this commitment to you, acknowledging that everything I have and everything I am is a gift from you. I pray that you will grant me wisdom and strength in the coming year, and that you will bless and use the gifts that I humbly present to you.
Amen.
